Attività Professionale

Gabriele Cuonzo è co-fondatore dello Studio Trevisan & Cuonzo ed è considerato dai suoi clienti come il "go-to lawyer for challenging cases in Italy". Ha una eccezionale reputazione per l'innovativo approccio ai contenziosi multigiurisdizionali in materia di proprietà intellettuale. Con oltre 40 anni di esperienza, Gabriele ha rappresentato numerose multinazionali dinanzi ai tribunali italiani in un'ampia gamma di cause di livello internazionale e di alto profilo: nel corso degli anni, ha assistito grandi nomi e ottenuto sentenze di rilievo come nei casi Scott Paper Company contro Kaysersberg (1994), Fujitsu contro Samsung (1997), Rambus contro Micron (2000), TRW contro Koyo (2006), Pronova contro Chiesi (2006), Ciba Vision contro Johnson & Johnson (2007), Angiotech contro Conor (2007), Novartis contro Actavis (2008), Unilever contro Nestlè (2008), Novartis contro Teva (2009), Astrazeneca contro Teva (2011), Biotec contro Novamont (2012), Bogner contro Bencom (2012), Harley-Davidson contro Pirelli (2013) , Novartis contro Doc Generici (2014), Boehringer Ingelheim contro Actavis (2014), Seattle Genetics – Takeda contro Arizona State University (2015), Beiersdorf contro Neve Cosmetics (2015), Unilever contro Colgate (2015), Briggs contro Honda (2016), Boehringer Ingelheim contro Teva (2018 e 2021), Heraeus contro Zimmer Biomet (2021), Loro Piana contro numerose controparti (2024 and 2025). on un'eccellente comprensione del diritto internazionale e come esperto linguista, Gabriele adotta un approccio pragmatico e solution oriented per affrontare temi commerciali ed è spesso coinvolto in complesse transazioni internazionali, per lo più con tematiche legate alla proprietà intellettuale. Gabriele è considerato una figura di spicco del contenzioso farmaceutico e delle procedure regolatorie.

È socio di EPLAW, AIPPI, LES Italia.
